

Integrale

The delivery van body with a powered side opening

Securing of the goods

Full opening

Effortless operations

Patented
system

Specifications

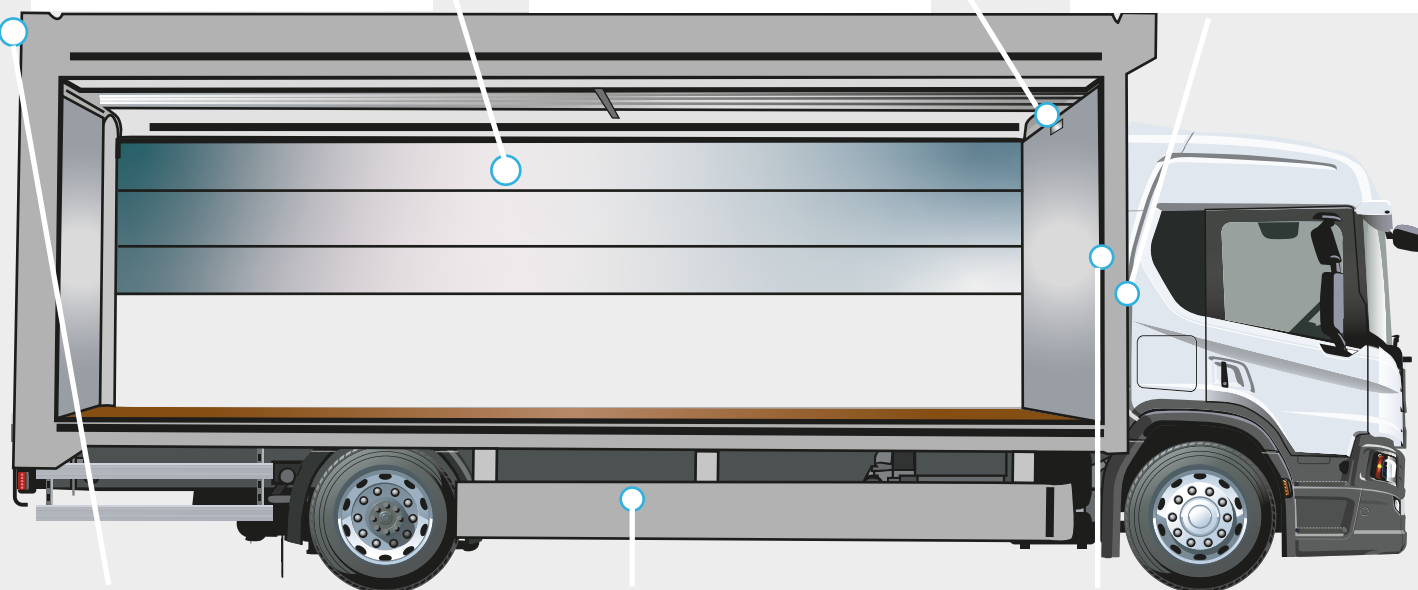

Electrically powered side shutters that fold away under the roof

LED ceiling light with movement sensor

Side shutter opening and closing controls

Reverse camera

Foldaway footstep with safety sensors

Safety system

Integrale

The indispensable body for beverage distribution thanks to the full opening of the side panels under the roof. Its electric system provides effortless opening and closure.

The robustness of the body, due to the high resistance of shutters, offers an additional security in the transport of the goods.

This body is adaptable to semi-trailer chassis.

Available for semi-trailers

